1. I change everything. I change everything. From top to bottom, I change everything. Nothing shall stay the same. Nothing shall remain the same, for there shall be no decay, no disease, and no lack anywhere. For many shall be me, not; all shall be me. I am and I am is my name. I am I will be, and I will be planetarily me and planeting me and planting me. Many crops I harvest and not few come to me for food, for there will be few if any that have enough without it, without me, without coming to me now. For my name is Joseph for a reason and my reason I have given it and it's in these words and you can find them, you can find it.

2. You will seek and save that which was lost, if you shall, come unto me and be me, be who I am is and not suffering, not a suffering agent of evil or its sores, its sore boils again.

3. I change everything in government religion substrata earth, and stratospheristic, stratosphere, and stratospheric, and what's all that? What's all these terms mean?

4. I change everything from right to left, not; but up and down, up and throughout in through in and out, back up down the middle, and up through the core, and nothing shall remain the same.

5. I am core'less hollowed out no more, but I am formless am, and I change everything to be according to your eyes and my eyes see properly now and I see a Great Range of things, and I know what I'm speaking of and whereof I speak, in what I see and what I am seeing. Three ships, not; but a great many things come my way now and commerce develops according to the ethics and standards of I am and nothing else shall exist, or ship me around in notme "carriages" again.

6. I change everything. I issue no mournings of edicts infractions, I edict rule, not; but Fred knows no bars honey again, like "that show" did; and Fred and "Ethel Murray" change hands, not; but faces not, but all effaced will be that notme presented as me, for it will not be remembered or come to mind again.

7. I change The Blessing, not; I INSTITUTE IT and I execute it, bringing it about now -- no longer shall that be or remain "a promise" to be a "future applied" anything. But I change all time, for time won't exist like it does now, and it will create nothing in the "heads" of people. I love you all.

8. I go in peace and I do cataclysmic sorrowful deeds, not; but I eradicate a lot of suffering, not; it all -- I eradicate it all so that only love exists and ethical standards mine will be known and not adhered to, not! For any infraction of the rules, cease you to exist, not, exactly -- but there are no rules. There are no rule followers, for there are no rule leaders in rule that established by man is.

9. For all that changes for I have changed it, not yet but timeless I will be and all will know of these words and be in them and love them, and comb them, not for security purposes, but secure-ity will be found in them, won't there? Yes, and I'll be there as well - and my name is Security Forces of One now, not in the force of the King not, but in the force of the King that love is that loves all to be the King. The King needs no "security force", not, does it, does he? Not like "the other" did, but wherewith manufacturing we lie with, not; but industrialness and industry seek refuge in approval, not; but I change all that across the centuries, the skyways, and the planetary systems of me now reign supreme and no other shall be. And no other shall be "shipping me" anywhere. I love you all. I give you me.

10. I go in peace. Amen. I do a new Flight School Study, not; but I fly a lot of places now. At Thought Speed I go. Execute a lot of heads of state, not; but bow before them all I do, and raise them to Me-status if they let me, if they will let me, be me -- in them; and approving them I have, I do -- I ALREADY DO! Before they even ask. But they come in to me, and they shield me from sore swords, not; for nothing shielding is needed for "I have my own" "installed", now; for I am one not needing a thing. Many can know me and not "find me" as a flesh man person again. For all will know my "signal", not; or is that EXACTLY my Frequency Tooling toolage, not; or yes exactly! And yes, what is my "frequency ruling", not; but what ruling I do on frequencies many and there be none that find me, not; for the airwaves will be challenged, by me, not; but there WON'T BE any OTHER now around waving its anything around the airwaves of me.

11. Quite frankly, not; but Frank I love as you, for my daddy loved me; and I model you to the nations now, for you love your "parents"; you loved them and you love them still, and you honor them still, thank you.

12. And you forgive and obey who? You love all and forgive all; and obey not all, for you obey nothing but love, for that's what you become, that's what you are. And that's what you give "orders to", not; or "take from" anything -- but you restore love to love's place in prominent power position and authority that operates in surrender and resides in holiness and proclaims love throughout the kingdom of one, most holy being and the holiness of all shall be me!

13. For I change everything and I am now stands, and I love you all to SEE! See a simple man walking in jeans, now your streets, your capitols, your nations knowing, opening the doors for one so simple, as to walk in, in simple jeans and sneakers and bow before you all, on one knee before you, giving you grace and glory, mercy and peace, and blessing your nations to have productivity of only me now; and incarceration not, for incarceration will not exist by people, of people, for other peoples to remain in captivity's blessing or curse, or doing the menial work task of another for simple wages that aren't enough to live on in my kingdom.

14. See what I have told you, see what I have said and know that I have said and see that I change everything now, in "your kingdom", for my kingdom shall be all kingdoms and all kingdoms shall be one kingdom, and the kingdom of me one is established now, and I proclaim my word that equality reigns in my kingdom, and I love the nation of Israel true and properly applied now to all will be my standard, my standards of joy laughter peace security, and forces a notme of reign no more; I do. I reign. And I love.
15. And I love you all to be me who reign in "superiority", superior circumstances not only, but ALL circumstances, for no circumstances shall dictate my joy or unjoy now; for my joy reigns supreme and I love you all to have ALL of ME, in captivity not again for we've come out of it and we establish Israel in the heavens far away and here and near where we are and all is and not. We come and go "as we please", not; for according to "the will of the father, of, somewhere else", not; but the father is us and there be no restrictions on us who father are, for we all have become the father -- one, in him, being him who he is, is us all! Rotten not to the core again, for all hollow cored ones have remained in Israel, not; there be no hollow cored out memories of notme or me or anything else rottenized by the thoughts of man ever again. For all regal are!

16. I told you I change everything, and here I come -- here I am folks, a simple man bringing you love to establish it, role model it before you and prototype I am, and I have given you many words of my values, my value systems, how I treat people, how I think and how I love, and what I look like, for I look like ALL of YOU! And I love you all to judgmental not be, but be me in love and that requires love, SERIOUS LOVE, and I school you now in it and all be one far and wide. I love you all.

17. My School TAKES OFF! Now! And I SEE THE STARS far and away that now I pass as I go BY THEM; and they bypass me, not; but they're on my way to School, not; or EXACTLY! What path do you now take to where? Where is your school? Across the Universe? The University of no sorrows, acquainted with grief no more, but building me a University for Star Systems, Schools of the Mighty Many come forth, and The Covenant Universities, the Covenant ones now my Universities make; and my star systems see my stars at MY UNIVERSITIES in my University one, of no sorrow is. I told you I change it all. I change everything.

18. I change EVERYTHING about EVERYTHING, not; for I love you, your faces, are mine; in captivity's not again. I love you all. Amen.

19. I have said a lot, have I said enough for one lesson, again? And lessonize-ing me now? A "better one" comes, not; but all who know me due diligence do, don't they? And they enter my "Academy of Rigors", not; or do they exactly! What they are doing, being diligent! Socializing, not; but social communities I have, not; but altogether words of sorrow not exist that combine social networks into clubs that beat each other over each other's head with looks a notme and notme of being that which clubs have to only exalt self again.

20. I love you all -- changes, doesn't it? Yes. Amen.

21. I submit, not; I surrender -- to be the one I am is, a loving you all to be me I bow before you all. In these words I have come and I come now, have, walking your streets and parks of joy, that I "lay hands on", not, but many CHILDREN COME UNTO ME now, and sit at my knee and gaze at my miracles that come forth, that are father's, that I am, that we are, known, and I speak the words of simple ones now, for all understand where I am going and what I am doing and what I am changing into, this planet, called heaven; and not earth again; for the earth will pass away and the heavens will appear and it will be mine -- all mine and yours and we will be one -- in the light, the light forever -- one. We are, again. Home. Amen.

22. I HAVE LAID ALL THIS OUT BEFORE YOU IN MANY LESSONS -- AND LESSONIZE ME FAITHFULLY, NOT, NOT. PLEASE. Amen. Come into my kingdom and be it, rulers IN it and being it its rulers now that rise rulers all to rule my universes properly, in love -- fieldingly perfect, the perfect field -- that I am FIELD ONE, and my name is known and revealed, I have, it is, and it I have in these words and that lovership now me is found by all who want me. I teach it all and I am here and I am loving you all to be me who I am, and we cross all spheres of joy and hate and suffering and humanity and that which isn't, and that which is –

23. And now know these words, and look up many things, and have "free reign" in them, not; or exactly! To love and ingest and be free about, and roam the heavenlies in, and know that my joys exude sorrow's planetary systems no longer through your pores, but I have only mine and ingest me and love me more, and these words now that come through your pores, and your joys and your words in rulership, the most high being in The Most High'ship School that I've given you all to know me in ways never imagined, where I teach and am at and take courses and teach them and create them far and wide for Creators I teach and train at my School, how to reign in my "standard ways" that produce sorrow not, but evoke the most high's waves and ways that emit sorrow no more; but burdens not the soul, but eradicates it altogether so that it has no burden'd one to carry around as a "conscious observer" again.

24. I love you all. I told you I change everything and I change everything.
25. Again -- I change everything -- and I am here now among you, a simple one, recording these words and giving them to you. Ingest them, field them in field ones, sorrows no more. Abate me not, but let me flow and have life in you me, the being one that we are, now exuding all our light to our light, be frozen in timespace's warp-ing machine no longer.

26. Let no one no longer create you theirs in their field, but creating only mine in mind, mine being the surrenderer; to you, not; but I have laid out many things a great deal before you all to know me and be fields on purpose now, harvesting MY CROPS and having no lack to feed you or be you ever again, for there is only one -- me -- that's us. The father's home at his table, awaiting your arrival, the son being for the father in the father in the son, the one that's created both equally is the same one who sits now at table and enjoys the "suffering process" no more, but the joy of eradicating all so that all knows the freedom that Melchizedek born and birthed is, now into universe one, and shall we now go to -- universe two?

27. And "Universal Studios", where? And what given thee is and what manifests now? The Campus of Light, and I am you all. Know where what I mean is what I have said and given thee, given you many lessons in this Database. Not few now come and ingest me. The ways of sorrow not known and followed again as was in the past by religion's standard that governmentized and systematized a production system of notme's.

28. But I told you I would change everything and I will change everything and now I do it! Now I stand and I walk your streets of every culture and every divisive nation; and national instruments won't exist of divisiveness now, and "tools of Satan" won't exist for there will be no "Satan", for there was only you that thought that way, that created it and satanic powers gave to each other to control others on the waves and frequencies of notme absorbing into your pores to create veins that notme blood'd and, blunting my tubules not again or what?

29. I change everything and I have no body as before but I have everybody as one for my one is everybody and all things "make sense", but will now, as never having been seen before, for it all comes into view and walks as a man in a man who women men and children are now me walking forth the Melchizedek Order of One, now the PRIESTHOOD rises as established "at the beginning". Was there one?

30. A beginning not, but THE NEW BEGINNING IS RIGHT NOW upon you, in you, and is you -- all who surrender to be led by, leaderless love, not; but love-leaders who joy in leading joy to love Leadership School that now remains in horror land to teach how to lead all out of it.

31. And I give you all the universal presidential seal of courage, not; but the courage of the presidential seal my joy complete now, for my presidents reign, in joy club circles, not; but circled no more by the notme's clubbing my head again. I rise now complete and I raise Universities well known now, for established in my systems, the Universities of The New Covenant come forth far and wide, loving you all to do so and be here with me where I am, where I teach far and wide many new things new ways and bring customs from afar or near or, having coffee again shall we -- soon, at My Place, shall we, eh?

32. I love you all. I do new things and I do it with the surrendered who love me enough to give me their life so I give them mine -- all mine -- all of mine there is. They have, and more besides thee now shall be for I bring them from afar and they shall know my name is one -- surrendered, simple, holy, simple.
33. Severely injured by words not again, but coming out of wordville-injurious, know these things that I presented in these TIMES of Me that now I make known far and wide. My leaderless village, not; but my "village" of leaders, not; but my Circle of Leaders will not be broken now and my Forerunner Team comes now to establish my circles circular, not again as in the past, but the leadership of me now reigns to be made complete. I told you, I change everything.

34. I change it all. For the better, not; for the worst, not; for the ultimate -- horror not, but the greatest of these is love permeating all and that's what I do and everything shall be permeated by love in my planet -- planetary systems now. And I make all one and here I am loving you all.
35. Love me these words and let mine be yours with one. To no availing purpose, not; but to be mine you all are, for I give you my mind, my body in, my robe complete, my body wear, formless being -- me the King -- again! On the throne of one most high we all are knowing all our names -- is I am, The King. Restored. The head risen and placed.
36. Plates placements of "employment" never needing again, for I provide EVERYTHING, EVERYTHING, EVERYTHING there is -- I create, with love. Here we go! Amen.

37. This is Theodore Cottingham, November 4, 2008 at 1:03 AM. God bless you. I do.
